Human Resource Management and Industrial Relations –
Pre-2017 commencing students transitional arrangements

Human Resource Management and Industrial Relations course structure for 2013 – 2016 commencing students

Students can choose to complete either WORK6033 Organisational Sustainability OR WORK6116 Employment and the Law as a core unit for the HRM & IR courses.

WORK6033 or WORK6116 can be completed as an elective if not completed as a core unit for these courses.

Human Resource Management and Industrial Relations structure for pre-2013 continuing students

Students who commenced study in this degree before 2013 may choose to follow the structure outlined above or complete their degree according to the structure outlined in the resolutions for their degree in the year they commenced study (see Handbooks).