Bachelor of Commerce (Liberal Studies) – 2012 commencing students: Transitional arrangements

Core units of study

From 2013, Students who commence the BCom (Liberal Studies) must complete BUSS3500 Integrated Business Applications as a capstone in their final Semester of study.

This only applies for students commencing from 2013. Students who commenced prior to 2013 may choose to complete BUSS3500 but it is not required.

The core units for this degree from 2012 will be as follows:

- BUSS1001 Understanding Business
- BUSS1002 The Business Environment
- BUSS3500 Integrated Business Applications

Please Note. BUSS3500 will be offered for the last time in intensive January session in 2017. Students who have not completed these units after these dates should refer to the Bachelor of Commerce – 2012 to 2016 commencing students: transitional arrangements for details of appropriate substitute units.
